conduct an agency for the reception of advertisements for American Newspapers and the most complete establishment of the kind in the world. Six thousand newspapers are kept regularly on file, open to inspection by customers. Every advertisement is taken at the same price of the paper, without any additional charge or commission. An advertiser, in dealing with the agency, is relieved of all trouble and correspondence, making one contract instead of a dozen, a hundred or a thousand. A book of eighty pages, containing list of best papers, largest circulations, daily and country papers, and all publications which are specially valuable to advertisers, with some information about prices, is sent FREE to any address on application. Persons at a distance wishing to make contracts for advertising in any town, city, county, state or territory of the United States, or any portion of the Dominion of Canada, may send a concise statement of what they want, together with a copy of the ADVERTISER they desire inserted, and will receive information by return mail which will enable them to decide whether to increase or reduce the order. For such information there is no charge. Orders are taken for a single paper as well as for a list; old stand.

DAY BOARDING.—Mrs. Stewart wishes to inform the public that she has opened a boarding house for the accommodation of day boarders, in the brick residence on the corner of Twelfth and Poplar streets.

Mrs. Stewart is known to Cairo people as an old hand at the business of providing acceptable fare for boarders, and with a determination to keep up her well-earned reputation, solicits a share of public patronsage. 89-8-26-41

COOK STAND FOR SALE.—Wishing to move on to a farm, I will sell my cigar and tobacco stand, with all the stock, furniture and fixtures connected with it, on Eighth street between Commercial avenue and Ohio levee—at a bargain.

The business is well established with a good run of custom, and there is no better stand in Cairo. My only object in selling is to change my business from the city to the country.

GOSE.—Our enterprising dry goods merchant, Mr. J. Burger, started yesterday on his way to New York and other markets to lay in his supply of goods for the fall and winter trade. He expects to remain in the East about six weeks, in order to watch the market and make his selections, buying at the most advantageous figures, in order to give his army of steady customers here, all the advantages that may be connected with his own knowledge of the business and his ability to not only buy at good bargains, but to make such selections as are most suited to the wants of the people who deal with him.

A DULL DAY.—Our business men were almost unanimous in the belief that yesterday was one of the dullest days, in a business point of view, experienced in Cairo during this season. It is fair to presume, however, that the rain, which prevailed the greater part of the day, had a depressing effect on all branches of trade. Our merchants are beginning to look forward to better times in the near future. The crop is good, and when it begins to move will make trade lively.

POLICE COURT.—There was very little business transacted in the police courts yesterday. One gentleman was before his honor Judge Ross, charged with using offensive and abusive language. A change of venue was taken to Justice Bird, but that the aforesaid gentleman gained anything by taking the change, does not appear very clearly. There were three warrants against him, charging him with using abusive and offensive language, on as many different occasions. He was adjudged guilty in each case, and the aggregate fines assessed him amounted to something over thirty-six dollars.

MARK HAS COME.—A New York and other eastern cities, to purchase the largest and finest stock of clothing and gents' furnishing goods ever brought into the Mississippi valley. He will consume from four to six weeks time in making his selections, and threatens to eclipse anything ever done in Cairo, in size of stock, quality of goods, and the bargains that he will labor to secure for his customers, whose name is legion—and he will do it. He never fails in anything he undertakes.

So we may look out for an immense stock of fall and winter goods, to be sold at close figures, and we will wait to buy our several suits until Mark returns. "Go then and do likewise."

THE GERMAN-AMERICAN SCHOOL.—The next session of the German-American school, Prof. Henry Appel, principal, and Miss Ottilia Yocum, assistant, will open on next Tuesday, September 1st. The school will be conducted in the same manner as last session. Prof. Appel will have charge of the German branch of the school, and Miss Yocum the English department.

Pupils will be instructed in the following studies:

Mathematics;
History of the United States; Geometry;

Natural Philosophy; and Needlework, together with all the other branches usually taught in our schools.

For further particulars parents are requested to inquire of PERSONALISM.—Mr. Jewett Wilcox, who has been in Vermont for the last two weeks, will return about Tuesday next.

—Major J. B. Dennes and Judge D.
L. Hawkins of Cape Girardeau, rival candidates for circuit judge of the Cape Girardeau (Missouri) district, passed through the city yesterday, on their way to New Madrid, on an electioneering tour.

—Mr. J. C. Joynell of Chicago, was a guest at the St. Charles yesterday.

—E. O. Francisco, agent for the Great Pan-handle route, was in the city on Wednesday and Thursday.

—Among the guests registered at the St. Charles hotel yesterday were: Robt Hobison, Cincinnati; C. A. Wares, Atlanta, Georgia; John G. Santos, Evansville; G.
W. R. Corlies, Metropolis; S. M. Burton, and Will Smith, St. Louis.

—Mr. Frank I. Ibbes, the St. Louis lumber merchant, has been in the city a day or two.

THE CAUSE OF TEMPERANCE finds one of its most insidious and dangerous opponents in the many so-called "tonics" and "appetizers," made of cheap whiskey and refuse liquors, finished up to suit depraved appetites under the name of medicine.

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS are none of these. They are not a beverage, but are a genuine medicine, purely vegetable, prepared from Calibladder, skin and blood, they are an infallible and unrivaled remedy.

LETTERS TO HIS PATRONS, AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC, GREETING.—I very respectfully solicit a continuance of the favors of my patrons and invite the patrons of the public, but I wish to distinguish between transient patrons to which not because of a philanthropic desire to show and boot my fellow men without money and without price, and that, therefore, if any old patron or new patron, desiring shoes or boots, has not the pecuniary ability to pay for the work ordered, when done, he is requested to pass on to some other shoemaker. I want no old patrons or new patrons who will not pay Those who are willing to pay will find it to their interest to patronize me, because I keep on hand the best of stock, do the MATRIMONIAL.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING AT

THE CHURCH OF THE RE- DEEMER YESTERDAY.

MR. CHAS. M. HOWE AND MISS EUGENIE WOOD ENTER THE WEDDED STATE.

DEPARTURE OF THE HAPPY

COUPLE ON AN EXTENDED

WEDDING TOUR.

Mr. Chas. M. Howe, of the firm of C.
M. Howe & Co., and Miss Eugenie M.
Wood, daughter of Col. Chas. O. Wood, late of the Cairo and Vincennes railroad, were yesterday united in marriage by the Rev. Chas. A. Gilbert. The marriage ceremony was performed in the Episcopal church, in the presence of a very large and select gathering of the elite of the city. Though the day was a disagreeable one, and at the hour when the company began to assemble at the church, a brisk rain was falling, neither Mr.
Howe, Miss Wood, nor their friends paid much attention to it; probably because their thoughts were too much taken up with the, to them, importance of the occasion, and it may be that they were looking beyond the present—into the dim future, contemplating the new life upon which they were about to enter with all its pleasures and pains.

At one o'clock, the bridal party having arrived at the church, left their carriages and entered the building.

The following are the names of all the parties, and their relation to the ceremony:

1.—BRIDE AND GROOM.

Chas. M. Howe, Miss Eugenie M. Wood.

2.—ATTENDANTS.

Mattie Williamson, Mr. Albert Howe, Katie Webb, Mr. Henry R. Wood, Mollie E. Webb, Mr. Frank Howe.

3.—Master of Ceremonies.—Matthew P.

Fulton.

4.—USHERS.

Messrs. A. B. Safford, H. H. Candee and
M. F. Gilbert.

5.—Music.—Mendelssohn's Wedding March

6.—OFFICIATING MINISTER, Rev. Charles A. Gilbert.

7.—TO GIVE AWAY THE BRIDE,

Hon. H. Watson Webb.

Promptly at the hour set the parties approached, and marching up the aisles in the order mentioned, the beautiful service of the Episcopal church was read, Mr.
Webb gave away the bride, and in a very brief space of time the twin were united in indissoluble bonds.
All parties sustained themselves admirably during the ceremony, and the happy couple were warmly congratulated at its conclusion.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Howe were escorted to the St.
Charles hotel, from which at 2:30 o'clock they took the north bound train for an extended bridal tour. They will be absent about a month, and during that time will visit Chicago, Montréal, Lakes Champlain and George, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

Before the departure of the train, congratulatory telegrams from Messrs.
Rumble, Wences and Wm. B. Dicks, Esq., of St. Charles, Miss. were received.

THE WEDDING TOILETTES.

As the bridal party proceeded immediately from the church to the railroad station, the bride was dressed in traveling costume, and her attendants in corresponding attire. The bride, according to a custom indulged in by most brides, looked handsome and happy. Her dress was a pearl colored Irish peppin, elaborately and elegantly trimmed—orange flowers in her hair and at her throat. Miss Mollie Webb, first bridesmaid, wore steel colored poplin—hair also adorned with orange flowers. Miss Kate Webb, second bridesmaid, ditto. Miss Mattie Williamson, third bridesmaid, steel colored silk, pink and white flowers in her hair.

The groomsmen, Messrs. Frank Howe, Henry R. Wood and Albert Howe, wore the customary "wallow flit" coats, white neckties, ditto vest, ditto gloves.

Mr. Matthew P. Fulton, as master of ceremonies, did his duty in an unexceptionable manner, and received the grateful thanks of all parties, with the wish that he may be the most "interested" at the next similar event.

THE PRESENTS.

Among many handsome gifts to the bride were an elegant and costly family bible from Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Steele; a prayer book from Miss Mollie Webb; a silver ball from Miss Mattie Williamson; a traveling drinking cup, silver, from Mr. M. P. Fulton; a silver carver from Mr. Wilkinson; silver butter knife from Mrs. Pink; two massive gold-lined silver napkin rings and bouquet holders combined, with inscriptions, from Mr. Frank Howe; an exquisite floral tribute composed of tube and tea roses and mosses, was the gift of the Misses Steele; a magnificent bridal bouquet, with a chased silver holder, handkerchief, ring and chain attached, from Mr. and Mrs. Wood Rittenhouse.

A fitting accompaniment to this beautiful gift was the following poem addressed to the newly-wedded pair by Mrs. Wood Rittenhouse:

A GREETING.

TO MR. AND MRS. C. M. HOWE.

In sparkling drops the rain comes down, A shining veil, to clothe this day In bridal robes—a glittering crown, Made of the summer's alvery spray.

With unseen sweets the flowers thrill The pulses of the crystal air;
In leaf-crowned woods the wild birds trill, Midst spicy ferns, and mosses rare.

Thy wedding day, oh! friends of mine—A gateway of 'n' new and bright; Into life where sweet hopes shine, Like stars upon a moonlight night.

Oh! fair young wife, may all thy years, No vain regrets, no blights, no how;
No sorrow dim thine eyes with tears, No cold winds chill love's warmth and glow.

Young husband, may the future yield

Joys sweeter than e'er known before, May life spread out, a golden field, Where harvest shall enrich thy store.

May this glad day an emblem be Of future bliss now but begun.
When sweet content and peace shall see Two fond hearts that indeed are one.

THE best goods at the lowest prices is the motto of Elliott & Haythorn. They will sell the lowest.
